President's Corner

It's February and time to begin planning in earnest for August's upcoming festival and music camp. This year we will be celebrating the NWWSMS' 30th Annual Western Swing Music Festival and Hall of Fame. We hope you will help us make this event one to remember!

Jeanne Yearian

Bands across the country soon will be receiving invitations to come and perform. These musicians share their love of western swing with us at their own expense. We try to provide an environment that promotes interaction among musicians, encouraging everyone to go away with a healthy dose of inspiration and new friends.

Once again, Suze Spencer will be heading up our western swing music camp, lining up instructors, encouraging young and old to experience the energy and enjoyment of playing western swing! Opening the festival on Saturday will be the music camp attendees - a performance you won't want to miss!

If you would like to help us 'set the stage' for this event, please don't hesitate to contact myself or one of the members of the Board. Here are a few of our fundraising opportunities.

- ★ We will be holding the Winter White Dinner/Dance on Saturday, February 22nd, to raise money for the summer music workshops (see page 5).
- ★ This month is the last opportunity to vote for Showcase Band of the Year. All money received goes into the General Fund to help with festival expenses. (See page 6.)
- ★ Sponsorship packages will be available next month to encourage donations of goods, services and financial support!

And, you can still nominate someone to the 2020 Hall of Fame until March 15.

The January showcase nearly became a one-man show due to so many of our musicians being under the weather! Our thanks to all of the participants who pulled together to help us kick off the New Year in spite of it all.

This year's host band for the Sweetheart Dance is Kristi Nebel & Cowgirl's Dream! They will be performing from 1:00 to 3:00. From 3:30-5:00 is the jam session. If you would like to join us on stage for a few songs, be sure to sign up at the information table.

In March, Butch Gibson & Pardners will once again be hosting the Bob Wills Birthday Bash!

See you on the dance floor! JY

RICK & THE ALL-STAR RAMBLERS NEWS FLASH

TARYN NOELLE - Nominated - Academy of Western Artists 2020 "Western Swing Female Vocalist of the Year." (See Mike Gross' review of her CD, Taryn Noelle Swings, on page 8 of this newsletter.)

RICK & THE ALL-STAR RAMBLERS - Nominated - Academy of Western Artists 2020 "Western Swing Group/Duo of the Year"

Yesterday morning, January 25th, award winning Western Swing Hall of Famer Billy Bowles once again had the honor of revealing the 2020 Academy of Western Artists Final Five nominations for the 24th Annual Will Rogers Awards on his Swinging Country radio show broadcast from KSSL in Lubbock, Texas. The awards ceremony will be held April 9th in Fort Worth, Texas, the cradle of Western Swing Music. Note: Taryn was honored at last year's Will Rogers Awards with the AWA "Western Swing Female Vocalist of the Year!" Final Five nominations two years in a row.

Taryn Noelle is on a roll. Yesterday, Taryn laid down an amazing vocal performance on the Spade Cooley 1945 classic western swing hit song "Shame On You," with sweet and spirited harmony support from The Blue Gardenias. Yesterday's session at Lane Gibson Recording & Mastering Studios in Charlotte, Vermont, finished up the first half of our "God Bless The Mighty Pickle" album project. Listen for her latest recording VERY soon! This past Thursday, Dena Wood from the Academy of Western Artists, sent us a couple of charts from the week of January 7th, placing Taryn at Number 51 on New Zealand's Top 200 Artist Chart and Number 35 on the Top 40 Singles Chart for her recording of "Right or Wrong." We are wicked PROUD of our Taryn.

Cherishing the Memories

Dwight Cook was born March 28, 1935, in Childress, TX. He grew up on a cotton farm southwest of Childress. His family later moved into Childress where his dad went to work for the railroad. Lo and behold, living next door to their new dwelling was a whole family of Western Swing pickers, the Jimmy Reece Band. Dwight knew then he had to have a guitar. On the back of comic books there was an offer to sell seeds at a nickel a package. If you sold all the seed and sent in $3.95 (plus $2.00 freight), a guitar could be had! Dwight thought he never would get those seeds sold, but he did. He was so proud of that Gene Autry Guitar. He didn't know how he ever learned to play on that thing but he learned well enough that his mom and dad bought him a new guitar – from Sears & Roebuck. Dwight's uncle was also a musician. His uncle and a fiddle player named Jimmy Reece taught him to play rhythm for them. They were known to kick Dwight on the shin to signal him when to change cords. From then on, he was hanging around those Western Swing musicians, learning all he could – guitar, bass, and, then, a Sears lap steel.

In 1953, Dwight entered the US Army for four years, playing in several Western Swing bands. After his discharge he didn't play for a couple of years. By then his folks had moved to Wichita, Kansas. Dwight soon found himself in Wichita, working in aircraft plants and playing on weekends. That is where he really got to play with some good bands. Web Tipton was of great help to Dwight and who really taught Dwight to play bass and guitar.

In 1980, Dwight moved to Amarillo, Texas, where he played bass for Tiny Duncan for two years. After that, Dwight played for Bobby Wynne and Khiva Shrine Temple Western Swing Band. As his left hand began to give him some pain, Dwight played more steel guitar and less bass. For many years, Dwight played steel guitar in and around Amarillo.

In addition to other honors, he was inducted as a Pioneer of Western Swing into the NWWSMS in 2001.

Album Reviews

By Mike Gross KSEY - FM
www.swinginwest.com Seymour, TX

Mike Gross

Milton Brown and Bob Wills with Right or Wrong. Ricky Nelson is remembered with There'll Never Be Anyone Else But You and from Patsy Cline Back in Baby's Arms is reprised. Blue Baby Now is from Rick & The Ramblers Green Mountain Standard Time CD and Wurlitzer Prize is borrowed from the country music world of Waylon Jennings. I'll Get Over You is a memory from Crystal Gayle and Leroy Preston's Full Moon Full of Love is borrowed from Rick and the Ramblers. A real gem is Swing on the Range, a Johnny Marvin composition with a new verse created by Rick Norcross.

The album can be obtained for $15 plus $2.50 shipping and handling from Airflyte Records, 216 Battery Street, Burlington, VT 05401.

Mike Gross, KSEY-FM, Seymour, TX & KTNK-AM, Lompoc, CA

Editor's Note: Our Congratulations to Taryn, Rick and the Ramblers on being recognized far beyond the Great State of Vermont for their contributions to the Western Swing genre (see page 4)!. Here is an instant replay from 2018.

Taryn Noelle, a member of Rick and the Ramblers, the wonderful Vermont Western Swing Band of Rick Norcross, has a brand new CD of 11 tunes produced by Rick. Two of those tunes, You're Gonna Get Hurt and Take Your Time were written by Rick and feature him on duet or harmony vocal with Noelle. The album also features fiddle wizard Doug Reid and the lap steel, piano and accordion of Charlie MacFadyen. Dono Schabner plays both lead and rhythm guitar, Ian Koeller and Brett Hoffman are heard playing drums and Dave Rowell - harmony vocals and bass. Other harmony vocals are done by Amber deLaurentis, Juliet McVicker and Josie Ritter. Buck Maynard plays rhythm guitar.

The album opens with the pop standard The Best Things in Life and then Taryn pays tribute to

Editor's Note: Paula was inducted into the NWWSSMS Hall of Fame in 2016. Several may remember she was responsible in large part for the State legislation being passed making Western Swing the State Music of Texas. Many of us are members of Paula's Facebook Group, Western Swing Music of Texas. It's a Public Group, inviting all. As Paula posted: "We know that there's a lot of things going on right now with politics but, please this page isn't somewhere to post such things. Let's make this page a respite away from that. We don't know about you but, we all need a break and somewhere to get a rest from it, a refuge let's make it here. Thank you." Check it out!

I would like to thank those who nominated me as DJ of the Year in the Academy of Western Artist Awards for my work on this (Facebook) page. I'd never thought of being a DJ or this page as being a radio program. I just bring things about music for the people who are interested in keeping the music alive, as I am. I hope it strikes some chord for those who are here, it's done from the heart. Thank you all for being here and loving the music I care about.

Pictured above: This is a brand new festival taking place in one of Texas' grand Historic Dance Halls, Anhalt Germania Farmers Verein. I wrote about this great hall sometime back as a part of a series of halls that are near San Antonio, Texas. This hall sits on 18 acres of land and contains a wonderful 5,000 square foot hardwood dance floor. The floor has been completely refurbished for this festival, didn't think that it could be improved upon but, it has been.....this is DANCERS HEAVEN !

Anhalt is a 501 organization supporting Agriculture Scholarships.

Showcase Band Leaders for January's Grand Jam

Top to Bottom: Butch Gibson,
Paul Cooper, Ramon Selby, Al
Troupe & Chet Hasting.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE 2020 JANUARY SHOWCASE

January's Grand Jam finally came together, although not as we had planned! Despite the number of musicians missing due to illness, we rallied all available musicians, played and had dancers on the floor!!! We'll count that as a success. Three very capable band leaders took charge of the afternoon, Paul Cooper, Butch Gibson and Ramon Selby.

For me, the day began looking brighter as soon as Chet Hasting walked through the door! Hearing our plea for lead players, he drove up from Milton to save the day - not an easy drive through Seattle on a typical Northwest rainy January afternoon. Thank you, Chet.

The first jam band, led by Paul Cooper (bass/vocals), Chet Hasting (guitar), Jeanne Yearian (fiddle) and Randy Miskulin (drums) set up quickly. After the band warmed up with a few tunes, Paul Cooper began inviting up the jammers. First was Butch Gibson joining us on stage, singing a few of his favorites. Before long, one of the summer music workshop students, Jim Hutchison, added his dobro to the mix. Sharing the drums with Randy Miskulin was Jeff, one of our dancers.

With the change in bands and band leader, the music shifted from the electric western swing/traditional country sound to a more acoustic, early western swing/Sons Of The Pioneers style. Ramon Selby and Al Troupe took the stage. It was a real treat to have LeRoy King join them for a few songs.

For the final set, Butch Gibson came back, inviting jammers to join in, adding yet another variation to the western swing sound of the afternoon's music. Jack Duncan, Dave Enslow and MaryAnne Enslow helped complete the afternoon's entertainment

Bob Wills was a trailblazer, an innovator who broke musical boundaries with his musical experiments. Let's not lose that curiosity and daring as we explore the sounds and variety of western swing music!

If you haven't joined the Northwest Western Swing Music Society yet, please consider it. Our membership dues provide a large part of our income, making it possible for us to continue our publication each month and put on our Western Swing Music Camp and Festival/Hall of Fame Celebration each year.

A special thanks to the folks at the Lynnwood Eagles, especially our attentive server and the talented cook for making us feel so welcome, taking such good care of us during the Showcases. We would also like to thank our very own Mary Lee Lykes for providing dance lessons before the showcases. Thanks to Fred Yearian (my much better half) for running sound and providing the PA and Randy Miskulin for providing his drums.

You can probably tell by now, we could not do this every month without the help of many volunteers. Thanks to everyone who participates in selling raffle tickets, who welcome those coming through the door, donating door prizes, issuing door prize tickets, and all the wonderful musicians who donate their time for the society.

Membership renewals were due on January 1st. Let's try to get our membership numbers up this year and show our support of the society. All of us are volunteers and your membership lets us know that you value the Society, its goals and the effort we put into it.

See you at the Sweetheart Dance in February!

Kaua'i Steel Guitar Festival, February 28, 2020 - February 29, 2020

The 5th Annual Kaua'i Steel Guitar Festival will be held on Friday and Saturday, February 28-29, 2020, at the Sheraton Kaua'i Coconut Beach Resort. This festival will be presented in the days preceding the annual Aloha Music Camp as an extension of the Hawaiian Steel Guitar experience that is offered at the camp. In addition to steel guitar performances by Hawai'i steel guitar masters, the festival will include workshops, kanikapila jam sessions where festival guests play along with the steel guitar masters, and Open Stage sessions where amateur Hawaiian Steel Guitarists present their own programs to festival guests.

A "Kīkā Pila" kanikapila jam session to kick off the festival will be held on Thursday evening, February 27, 2020, between 6PM and 9PM, at Duke's Kaua'i. Festival musicians and NextGen steel guitarists and members of the Ke Kula Mele Hawai'i ensemble will be joined by guest performers for a fun evening. The restaurant strongly recommends calling ahead for reservations. Call (808) 246-9599 and speak to General Manager Derek Kessler. Click here for an area map.

The festival is presented free to the public by Hawaii Institute for Music Enrichment and Learning Experiences (HIMELE) in association with the Ke Kula Mele Hawai'i School of Hawaiian Music. Partial funding provided by Hawai'i Tourism through the Kūkulu Ola Program.

TOMMY THOMSEN AND THE CHURCH OF WESTERN SWING

*ALWAYS SWINGING THE LAST WEEK OF APRIL
IN TURKEY, TEXAS*

Church Bulletin:

Howdy Church Friends!! Improvements at the church continue. Don't you love the new patio?? And did you notice the extra room on the dance floor? We look forward to making more improvements as funding permits. The church would like to send a sincere thank you to the folks that came the week before the event and helped get everything ready. . . including building the patio cover!

Thank you to the C.O.W.S Band that continues to give their time and amazing talents so generously. We couldn't do this without your dedication to the church and this music.

Finally, we'd like to thank the folks that come to the church for fun, fellowship and to dance and listen to some of the finest western swing musicians around.

Don't forget that The Church of Western Swing is now a registered 501c3 nonprofit organization dedicated to the preservation and perpetuation of the music we love.

Enjoy the pictures and videos and look for more news to come.
