You are Invited to the NWWSMS' January Grand Jam

Happy New Year to each of you! We're ready to kick off 2020 with lots of live music - you might say, a western swing free-for-all - everyone is invited to sign up and join in. This is an opportunity for musicians to possibly discover a future 'best friend' or 'pickin' buddy.' You might decide that 2020 is the year you're going to do it . . . and sign up for lessons with one of the outstanding instructors ready to take you to the next level on your journey through western swing, as a musician or vocalist. Better yet, catch a vision for a new band. This could be the time and place for any number of new beginnings, right here at the Western Swing Showcase, from 1 to 5 pm, on January 12th, at the Lynnwood Eagles.

At this time, in the Puget Sound area the number of jams and open stages where new and aspiring musicians can mingle and share the stage with more experienced players is steadily decreasing. Take this opportunity to sample the dynamics of playing in a group setting and the potential of developing your musical skills in a safe and supportive environment.

Over the years, I have attended numerous jams and have also been part of host bands at jams, so I've seen it from both sides. One thing I quickly discovered. Each musical genre and group has its own way of conducting a jam session. It's a good idea for novice players - before jumping blindly into a potentially scary or embarrassing situation - to learn something of jam etiquette so you can get the most out of your experience and leave looking forward to the next time!

At our western swing jams, novice musicians are mixed with experienced players on stage and perform songs together. The 'jam band leader' will ensure there is an experienced drummer, bass player, rhythm guitar and at least one lead instrument on stage during their set. The leader of the jam band will run the stage and 'direct traffic' (see page 6 of this newsletter for more on directing traffic).

On Page 12 are some jam etiquette guidelines compiled from various sources. Some pertain to the way the NWWSMS conducts jam sessions but most would be valuable no matter whose jam you are joining.

MINUTES FROM THE BOARD

DECEMBER 8, 2019

President Jeanne Yearian called the meeting to order at 10:50 am.

Present by Verbal Role Call: Tony Bachler, Sharon Capps, Dave Enslow, Butch Gibson, Lori Hanson, Sharon Smith.

Guests: N/A

President's Report: Jeanne Yearian reported on the vacant position of Treasurer and Showcase coordinator for 2020. Discussion followed.

In the interim, Tony Bachler, assisted by Lori Hanson, will fill the position of Treasurer. Butch Gibson will take over as Showcase coordinator. Judy Hayes will schedule the jam session leaders.

Due to the vacant position, Judy Hayes will assume a position as a full member of the Board. Sharon Smith will continue to serve as an alternate.

Treasurer's Report: Sharon Smith reported on the current bank balances in both accounts.

Submission of Bills to Pay: Budgets for 2020 should be submitted for approval by the January meeting.

Committee Reports:

Sunshine: Jeanne Yearian reported.

Newsletter/Website/Facebook:

Additions/Changes to the Newsletter:
Discussion regarding Page 4 of the newsletter, Sharing the Journey. This was Lou Bischoff's column for years. A notice has been placed in the December newsletter regarding the change coming in January.

Additions/Changes to the Website:
As a 501c3, the Society is required to post its tax returns in a location accessible to the public. The IRS returns for 2017 and 2018 have been posted on the website, as part of the page labeled Join/Contact, along with the Board members and By-Laws. The page will be relabeled: About Us.

Membership / Liability Insurance - The Society's liability policy has been received. Liberty Mutual will be sending the premium within a few weeks. January begins NWWSMS membership renewal.

Showcase - Sharon Smith reporting: today's Showcase Band will be Butch Gibson & Pardners. For January we will host a Grand Jam, inviting several band leaders to participate.

Enumclaw 3rd Sunday Jam Update: The November 17 jam filled the Enumclaw Music store with music. We had three accordions, one dobro, one fiddle, both a guitar and ukulele, playing lots of western swing. Due to December's busy holiday schedule, the next jam will take place on Sunday, January 19, from 2 to 5 pm, at Enumclaw Music on Cole St.

2020 Western Swing Festival - August 4 (set up) through August 10 (tear down). Nominations for Inductees into the 30th Hall of Fame will open in January 2020. Completed nominations need to be received by March 15, 2020. The Jangles have confirmed they will be performing at the festival on Friday evening. Morey and Dorrie Sullivan are ALMOST certain they can host the ceremony again. The Western Swing Music Society of the Southwest has readjusted their schedule. Their events will not conflict with our festival this year so be sure to invite our friends from the Southwest who will not have another obligation. They were certainly missed last year!

Scholarship/Workshop: Jeanne Yearian reported we are still waiting to hear from Suze Spencer and Tim Dawdy.

Winter White Fundraiser: Lori Hanson reported on her progress. (See Page 5 of this newsletter for the latest information.) Discussion followed.

Sharon Capps' NWWSMS Dancers' Quilt will be displayed at the Showcases until the fundraiser. The raffle tickets will be sold for $5.00 each.

Unfinished Business: No unfinished business to report.

New Business: No new business to report.

For the Good of the Order: No one reporting.

The meeting's minutes were read and approved by the Board members present. Motion passed to adjourn at 12:35 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeanne Yearian, Secretary

President's Corner

Jeanne Yearian

Someone once said with every ending comes a new beginning. With that thought in mind - starting off with a clean slate in 2020, I went onto the internet to find out just how the experts suggest starting a new year geared for success.

After looking over several lists, it was clear to me that my involvement in the NWWSMS benefits not only the Society but ME - my attitude and well-being. Combing through the lists, there it was: the importance of volunteering along with making the effort to strengthen friendships and family ties; again volunteering along with learning something new every day; and volunteering along with taking a dance class. Volunteering - a key to health and success!

Now that I know what valuable benefits the NWWSMS offers me as a volunteer, I look forward to the challenges and opportunities 2020 will bring. And, each of you are invited to take part, with whatever talents, time, and ideas you have to offer!

What an energizing holiday celebration we enjoyed at the December Showcase. Decorations in the Lynnwood Eagles added warmth to the festive spirit. The door prize table was overflowing with holiday cheer. THANK YOU to everyone who donated door prizes. I believe nearly everyone who wanted to take part in the drawing walked away with something to make their holidays brighter. And special thanks to the Eagles and their volunteers who make us feel so welcome.

The Host Band for December, Butch Gibson & Pardners with guest musician Pat Rowe, kept the dancers on the floor with a great mix of western swing and holiday favorites. Several guests made a point of expressing their delight. More than once I heard, "You couldn't have picked a better band for this month." Thank you, Butch Gibson & Pardners!

Just a reminder, membership renewals are due in January. We need your support to continue. $20 or $25 a year is such a small price to pay for the benefits received

January is our Grand Jam . . . when our band leaders bring in folks they enjoy sharing the stage with. In February in addition to the Showcase, we will be hosting our first Winter White Dance and Fundraiser. We've included an event flyer on Page 5 of this newsletter. Lots of F-U-N ahead! ## Cherishing the Memories

Tink Cariker
December 27, 2019

Tink Cariker was born in Western Swing territory. She learned to dance to Western Swing music and it was the only music she knew until she left Texas and moved to California. She rediscovered it in late 1986 when she read an article in the Sacramento Bee about the Western Swing Society, Loyd and Perry Jones, and the Texas Saloon. She immediately joined the Society, becoming a board member in 1987.

She served the Society in various capacities over the years: Secretary, Treasurer, Scholarship Chairman, Hall of Fame Chairperson, Membership Director, and Newsletter Editor. She served with nine Society Presidents: Loyd Jones, Perry Jones, Juanita Albright, March Krock, Warren Mayhew, Sandy Roland, Dean Moore (a former Bob Wills Texas Playgirl), Charlie Hull, and Bill Eneyart. During Dean's Presidency, Tink and Dean attended and supported Western Swing events in Texas and Oklahoma; Dean as a performer, and both as Ambassadors for the Sacramento Western Swing Society. To the end, Tink attended as many Western Swing events as time and health permitted. Her knowledge of Society history and the bylaws made her an invaluable asset as she advised the board regarding matters pending consideration and action.

Being associated with the Society and Dean Moore afforded Tink undreamed of experiences, visiting with many of the legends who were "there" when it all started. She felt the Society had given her much more than she had ever given the Society.

Tink said that as much as she enjoyed the association of the fine people she had met through the Western Swing Society, nothing compared to the exhilaration she felt when dancing to Western Swing music.

Tink was inducted into the Western Swing Society of Sacramento Hall of Fame in 2009, followed by induction into the NWWSMS Hall of Fame in 2014.

Shorty Joe
Quartuccio

Joseph (Giuseppi) Quartuccio Jr. also known as "Shorty Joe," passed away peacefully on December 22, 2019, at the age of 95 with his daughter, son-in-law and family by his side.

Married for 73 years, Shorty Joe and his wife, Jennie, were "prune picker" sweethearts and inseparable since the ages of 11 and 12. During their long, happy lives, they traveled the world and owned a ranch in east San Jose. They were an excellent example of true, unconditional love.

At the age of 17, Shorty Joe joined the Navy and worked as an aircraft mechanic during World War II. Upon his discharge, he worked at NASA for 30 years where he developed new aircraft and trained future astronauts.

Shorty Joe always had a passion for country music. He formed his first band in 1941, but World War II interrupted his plan. After the war, Shorty Joe became the first disc jockey for Radio KEEN. The revived "Shorty Joe and the Red Rock Canyon Cowboys" could be found all over Santa Clara Valley from recording for Bella and Golden West record labels to hosting dances at Tracy Gardens.

Some years later, Shorty Joe and others were recognized for their contributions to America's folk legacy. The crowning moment came when the Franklin Mint Society of New York honored Shorty Joe by including his 1950 Golden West release of Saturday Night Stomp on its album collection, The Greatest Country Music of All Times. Other highlights include: a guest appearance in 1944 on his idol, Dude Martin's, radio show on KYA in San Francisco; the sell-out crowd of 850 people at his first reunion of the "Red Rock Canyon Cowboys," and simultaneously being honored by his band with the recording of an LP album, "A Tribute to Shorty Joe," in 1985.

Shorty Joe was inducted into the Western Swing Society of Sacramento's Hall of Fame in 1992. He was inducted into the NWWSMS Hall of Fame in 2004.

Our sincere thanks to all of these talented musicians who so willingly entertain us without compensation.)

The winning band will receive the traveling trophy plus its choice of day/time for local bands to perform at the 2020 NWWSMS Western Swing Festival! You can vote as many times as you like!

IF you prefer general guidelines, you might consider the band's quality and choice of western swing music as well as their stage presence. Ask yourself if the music made you want to dance. Was the band entertaining? Fun?

WESTERN SWING TIME!

JOIN TEX HILL WEDNESDAYS AT NOON CENTRAL KYACFM.ORG

The price of a ballot ($5.00) allows you to vote 5 times. You can vote for one band five times or five different bands! This is a brand new festival taking place in one of Texas' grand Historic Dance Halls, Anhalt Germania Farmers Verein. I wrote about this great hall sometime back as a part of a series of halls that are near San Antonio, Texas.

This hall sits on 18 acres of land and contains a wonderful 5,000 square foot hardwood dance floor. The floor has been completely refurbished for this festival, didn't think that it could be improved upon but, it has been.....this is DANCERS HEAVEN !

Many of our Western Swing and Traditional Texas music performers will be on hand and we'll guarantee they'll keep you on the dance floor...There will be plenty of food plus a true Texas Chuckwagon meal will be available. Goat roping and vendors tents will be on premises. Please checkout the .com and Facebook pages for updates and schedules for who, when, where and price.

Come join us - we like to meet new folks!

Showcase Band for December Butch Gibson & Pardners

Top to Bottom: Butch Gibson,
Judy Hayes, Larry Broad, Jim
Hollinger & Pat Rowe.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE 2019 DECEMBER SHOWCASE

Our December Showcase featured Butch Gibson & Pardners with guest musician Pat Rowe. In addition to their varied selection of Western Swing tunes, Pardners is one of my favorite holiday dance bands.

Sure enough, the floor was full of happy dancers. And several told me how much they were enjoying the music. We have a warm and inviting group of regulars who are more than happy to welcome inquisitive newcomers, dancers on all levels. To help newcomers ease into it, we offer free dance lessons from noon to 12:45, before the Showcase begins. And our own MaryLee Lykes helps even the most shy among us mix and mingle.

Pardners boasts a first-class rhythm section with Judy Hayes and Jim Hollinger—the dancers' delight. Added to that foundation is the rhythm and lead work of Larry Broad and Pat Rowe, finishing off with the swinging vocals crooned by Butch Gibson.

The beautiful, hand-made quilt by Sharon Capps, featuring our Showcase dancers, hung behind the stage for all to admire. We will be raffling the quilt at the Winter White Dance, being held here at the Lynnwood Eagles, on Saturday, February 22. There is still time to buy raffle tickets at $5.00/chance! The money will be used to help with the music workshop expenses during the August 2020 Festival and Hall of Fame celebration. You can find more information on Page 5 of this newsletter. Many thanks to Board Member Lori Hanson for putting this event together.

Due to the number of contributions, we had to draw for door prizes twice during the afternoon. Door prizes are donated every month. We seldom know what will come in the door! And, we truly appreciate everyone who contributes. Special thanks to Kelly Gibson and Sharon Capps who both shared an abundance of holiday cheer! Cindy Peacemaker and Bill Metz generously donate every month. Remember, to be included in this drawing, be sure to print your name on the back of one of the door prize tickets and put it in the bucket . . . it's as simple as that.

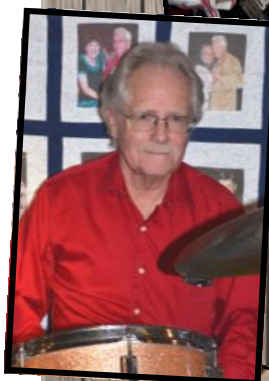

Pardners cleared the stage as we began pulling names for door prizes. By the time we had finished, the jam band musicians were ready to warm up with a short set. Backing our jammers this month were Ramon Selby and Al Troupe, joined by Pat Rowe on steel, with Judy Hayes and Paul Cooper on bass. Along with Jim Hollinger, we had Randy Miskulin and Denny on drums. Soon the jammers were being called to the stage. Thank you to everyone who added to the music.

We would like to thank the Lynnwood Eagles and Volunteer Staff for all of their attention, great food and hard work. They help provide a warm, welcoming venue for our showcases! And, a personal thanks to each of you who come out every month to support our Western Swing society. It means so much to us that you all are here, whether you are a dancer, musician, listener or all three!

Remember everyone's membership renewals will be due again on January 1st. Let's try to get our membership numbers up this year and show our support of the society. All of us are volunteers and your membership lets us know that you value the Society, its goals and the effort we put into it.

I look forward to seeing you at the January Grand Jam!

Before You Go

- Learning a bit about Western Swing music with a few basic licks helps a great deal.
- Bring your own instrument, tuner, amp, cords, etc. You may be able to plug into someone's amp, but that might not be the case. Drums are usually provided.
- Leave the big amp home—Moderate stage volumes are expected. (More on stage volume to follow)
- Keep it simple—Don't bring a complex rig/pedal board that takes a long time to set up.

At the Jam

- Sign the List - When you arrive, find the sign-up list and get your name on it. The Host will call players for each set. You will not be called up to play unless you sign up.
- Talk to the Host - It's a great idea to have a word with whoever is hosting the jam to let him/her know your level of experience and if you would like to play with anyone in particular.
- Tune up before you get on stage - Tuning on stage will only irritate the other players who are waiting their turn.

On the Stage

- Be efficient - Set up time should be kept to a minimum. When your set is finished, get off stage as quickly as possible. Other jammers are waiting their turn.
- Never place your drink on top of an amp, especially if it's not yours.
- Watch the jam band leader as well as the singer for direction - Either the singer or the jam band leader makes sure that everyone on stage has a chance to solo. If you don't want to solo, let them know.
- If you are the Singer - Try to call out songs that fall into the core western swing repertoire - songs that your fellow jammers will be comfortable with and that don't require a lot of description. Beware the 'jam-busters' that no one has a clue how to play - unless the jam is being dedicated to obscure tunes.

- Listen - Fit your instrument into the song and listen to what other players are doing. Trade fills with others. Only solo when asked.
- Don't step on people - In other words, don't play over the vocals or over someone else's solo. If you are playing rhythm/comping, keep it tasteful. The time to solo is during your own solo break.
- Keep it tasteful - When soloing, show off your chops, but play within your means. If you are a novice/intermediate player stay within your comfort zone. Look to the singer or jam band leader for cues to continue or pass the solo on.
- Don't Play Loudly - Most of us have some degree of hearing loss, so, for example, if the drummer/bass player sets the volume too high, everyone turns up their amps so they can hear themselves and the vicious cycle of rising stage volume begins. It doesn't take much to drown out the vocalist. Also, the lead players should turn down their instrument volume after their lead ride or solo.

After Your Set

- Thank the Band - Remember to thank the musicians who just shared the stage with you.
- Thank the Venue - Remember to thank the venue for holding the jam and supporting live music (buying something to eat or drink is also much appreciated).
- Mutual Respect - Most of the etiquette at jam sessions comes down to having a certain amount of respect for the abilities, but more importantly, for the feelings of the other people involved in the session.

Ready to give it a try? After playing 10-20 jam sessions you will have learned more about music, about communication, stagecraft and about yourself than you could have learned by playing solo or practicing for a whole year at home! So come on out and let's kick off the New Year with music!

Directing Traffic

Tips for Jammers By Dave DuChane

It's easy to get lost on stage but, if you do, it's comforting to know that there's usually someone there directing traffic. This is especially helpful in situations where verbal instructions are not practical - for example, when stage volume may have crept above the level where you can hear unamplified voices.

Didn't catch the key of the next song? Someone could give you the information using their hands. Here is what they would be saying. They would be noting the number of sharps or flats in the song. (The position of the hand would be either straight up for sharps or the key of C- no sharps or flats - OR pointing down towards the ground to indicate the number of flats.) It's important that we listen closely and watch for anyone who can throw out directions using hand signs. We're hopefully not up there to show off our licks. We're there to play TOGETHER and HAVE FUN.

Message From The President of the WSMSS (John Jones)

By all accounts, 2019 was another great year of music and dancing, and 2020 is shaping up to be even better! Once again, we have six showcases planned for the next year, including Wichita Falls, TX, Cape Girardeau, MO, Lawton, OK, Springfield, MO, Amarillo, TX and Hulbert, OK. I am also pleased to announce that unlike 2019, we have managed to schedule our Springfield showcase so that will not conflict with the NWSMS Hall of Fame induction ceremony in Enumclaw, WA, and our Amarillo showcase will not conflict with The Cowboy Gathering in San Angelo, TX.

We have also decided to make a minor adjustment to our showcase entry fee for Thursdays only. In the past, Thursdays have been free of charge with the entry fee for Fridays and Saturdays costing just $5.00 for members and $10.00 for non members. The WSMSS board have decided that Thursdays will continue to be free for all members, but there will be a $5.00 entry fee for non-members. Hopefully, this very small change will encourage people to join WSMSS and become a part of our great organization!
